Create characters with your class

- Author Robin Price has been busy editing a brilliant new series of Roobarb and Custard stories.
- Robin will inspire and engage your pupils with a cross-curricular event that covers reading, writing & making up characters.
- Ideal for getting Reception and Y1 pupils into making up their own stories and reading.

Your pupils will get to:

- Listen to a Roobarb & Custard story
- Help Robin to act it out
- Ask questions about books and writing
- Make up their own cartoon characters and swap them with the class

Special offer - free books!*

- Book a visit before August 2011 and get a free class set of Roobarb & Custard books (*up to 30 books per school) RRP £3.99 each!

A half day visit costs £160 plus travel expenses. To book, e-mail info@mogzilla.co.uk or call 0845 838 5526.

About Robin and his schools workshops

- Robin Price is the author of five Spartapuss adventures as well as London Deep (2010) which was chosen as a Recommended Read for World Book Day 2011. When he's not writing books, Robin also writes for Tall Stories Theatre Company. He co-wrote musical versions of Julia Donaldson's bestsellers The Gruffalo and Room On the Broom.

"Thank you for the fantastic day – the students and staff involved really enjoyed the sessions. It helped make a real success of our literacy week... and the feedback you gave them was great, especially for our weaker students who lack confidence." – Mrs Harrison, Medway

Robin's sessions really excited and inspired them so that they couldn't wait to get writing!" – R. Smith, Deputy Head Trafalgar Junior School
